

PRIVACY POLICY STATEMENT

Part of the Client onboarding process requires Brightwave Partners Ltd UK Company Number 16088057 (Brightwave) to collect your Personal Information, Credit Information, Credit Eligibility Information and CP derived information (these terms are defined in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (as amended) and are explained in our Privacy Policy).

During the Client onboarding process, you provide us with your personal details and complete an onboarding application form detailing your credit information and credit requirements. On receipt of your application, we seek credit eligibility information from credit reporting bodies and other credit providers to assist us in assessing your eligibility for credit. We also disclose Your Information to credit providers we submit your application to for approval.

Brightwave has a Privacy Policy which incorporates our credit reporting policy and details how we collect, use, and disclose your Personal Information, Credit Information and Credit Eligibility Information. Our Privacy Policy is available free of charge on our website or if it is more convenient for you, we can mail or email it to you.

Our Privacy Policy explains the third parties to which we disclose Your Information to and from whom we collect Your Information. It also deals with how we secure that information, the use of cookies, the transfer of Your Information overseas, how you may access Your Information and if you believe information held about you is incorrect, how you may arrange the information to be corrected. The purposes for which we collect Your Information is set out in our Privacy Policy and includes direct marketing to you.

By providing Your Information to us you are consenting to the collection, use and disclosure of Your Information in accordance with our Privacy Policy. Our application forms ask you to confirm your consent to the collection, use and disclosure of Your Information in accordance with our Privacy Policy. Please take the time to read our Privacy Policy and if you have any questions, please let us know.
